 - Leos are heroes
 - Community service is a group thing, we need each other to do good.
 - Please continue to be a Leo or Lion in the future because it does truly help us.
 - People may forget what you say and who you are but you will never forget how it makes you feel.
 - Moral of the story of Mr.Hanagami's story abut the kids that were rugged and rowdy that helped developmentally challenged kids and that person who helped him get a job
- Magic Show by Bruce Meyers
- Speaker: Jeanne Kapela
 - We need to always think of the future because it isn't us that will feel the fire its whoever comes after us
 - Why?
 - Why are we doing things that we need to do?
 - Jeanne's was her little brothers and her grandma that died of Polio right before the vaccine came out

- We need to challenge ourselves because we need to get comfortable being uncomfortable
 - The only person we need to challenge is the person in the mirror
- Perfection doesn't exist. When you try to be perfect that is what everyone thinks you are but it simply doesn't exist.
- You don't need to be perfect just be present.
- Have a plan and write it into existence.
- All challenges are meant as opportunities
- Flexibility is crucial to being a ruler
- Big Snooze is what the universe puts in our pathway.
- Preparation is key.
- Hold the leaders you have accountable. It's a love that we need to give her world.
- You need to accept who you are. It may take a while but it needs to happen.
- It starts with you. Knowing your flaws and realizing that you need to let it go.
- For a very long time we've had the same people in leadership positions but its time for a change.
- The mistakes that are made are what changes us.
- If you don't take of you then you will struggle. Taking care of yourself is an expression of love. The only person that you need to be criticized harshly by is the person you see in the mirror.
- Deep inside of you is a child that needs to be cared for and loved and cared for. Leadership stems from this and is important to be cultivated for.
- Election of District Officers
 - Results will be told later at night.
